Bay Area moving consultant honored by national group

Local moving company representative earns van line sales award

Burlingame, CA —Like many people faced with the COVID-19 pandemic, The sales department of AMS Bekins knew they'd have to embrace a new way of doing things if they wanted to meet the challenge of 2020. Many who adapted to safer, socially distant business practices such as virtual surveys and PPE saw a busy year; AMS Bekins ultimately earned Bekins Van Lines' Leaders Club Award for 2020 for their hard work in a challenging environment.

Bekins Van Lines is the fourth largest household goods carrier in the United States, and AMS Bekins – alongside about 400 agencies nationwide – partners with the van line for all interstate moves. Bekins' sales recognition award program recognizes individuals within the van line network who educate customers moving out of state and book their moves over the course of the year. The Leaders Club is the second highest sales recognition a moving consultant can achieve from the van line.

"People in big cities have been looking to get out of populous areas during the pandemic," said A.J. Schneider, President of Bekins Van Lines. "But, of course, our work means allowing strangers into their homes, so it's a credit to AMS Bekins that they were able to adapt to new ways of doing their jobs, complying with CDC guidelines and customers' comfort levels."

AMS Bekins's achievement in making the Leaders Club Award puts them at the top 10 per cent of Bekins representatives in 2020.
